Fusion Insurance Services appoints new Regional Operations Manager

London, 17th December 2014: Insurance underwriters Fusion Insurance Services have appointed Sharon Welsh as Regional Operations Manager.

Sharon's responsibilities will include developing processes to improve customer service and operational effectiveness within Glasgow office. Sharon will also work as part of a virtual team across all of Fusion's regions, to embed Fusion's compliance control framework and focus on the training and development for all staff. This is a new role within Fusion.

Sharon was formerly at AJ Gallaghers where she worked as a Client Money Manager. Prior to this she has held a variety of insurance roles including working at Direct Line, NIG and RSA. Sharon will be based in the Glasgow office and will report to Trevor Hillman, Regional Director.

Glasgow office has recently moved to 58 Robertson Street and offers a wide range of commercial products, including Commercial Combined, Contractors Insurance, Motor Fleet, Engineering, Property Owners, Marine Trade and Risk Management. Fusion Insurance has offices across the UK in London, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Glasgow and Leeds.

David Bruce, CEO Fusion Insurance, commented: "We believe that Sharon, as Regional Operations Manager, will play an important part in our ability to deliver the standards and service that all our clients expect from us. Sharon brings a high level of expertise and experience and she will be a strong addition to our team not only in Scotland but across all our UK offices."
