

Press Release

Fusion Insurance boosts Leeds team with seven new hires

London, 10 February 2015: Commercial underwriter Fusion Insurance Services has boosted its Leeds office with eleven new people, including seven new hires. The appointees include the creation of a new role, Broker Development Co-ordinator, Kieran Fletcher. The other roles include a strengthening of the liability and Motor Fleet underwriting capability.

Kieran brings eight years industry experience, joining Fusion from Allianz where he has been carrying out a similar role for two years.

The new appointments are:

- Kaj Kaur, Regional Development Underwriter
- Joanne Jepson, New Business Trader
- Ian Thompson, Trader
- Lyn Redihough, Fleet Trader
- Jessica Chapman, Technician
- Hiran Tura, Technician

The Fusion team comprises experienced trading underwriters with technician support, allowing underwriters to concentrate on trading and dealing with broker and their clients.

The new appointments have also been boosted by four Fusion staff from other offices moving to Fusion Leeds office. These are:

- Jim Featherstone – Regional Development Underwriter
- Timothy Mackfall – Trader
- Melissa Hibbert – Technician
- Ben Warburton – Technician

David Bruce, CEO Fusion Insurance, commented: “With the recent opening of Fusion office in Manchester our Leeds office can dedicate its efforts on the brokers in the North East. Recruiting new team members and reshaping the team means that the Leeds office can continue to provide the high levels of service and advice that our brokers expect from all our offices across the country.”

Ends